

Berkshire Ornithological Club

Queen Mother Reservoir application form and access agreement

Name: _____ BOC membership number: _____
Address: _____
Email: _____ telephone: _____
Permit number: _____ Date issued: _____ Valid until: 31/12/2013

Conditions of issue

1. The permit, any keys issued and combination lock numbers are issued for the named permit holder only and are not transferable.
2. The permit is only valid whilst the holder is a member of the BOC; permit and any keys issued must be returned if membership is terminated.
3. Permit and keys must be returned if required to do so by the BOC for non-compliance of the permit holder with the conditions of issue or if required to do so by Thames Water.
4. Entrance to QMR is via the gate specified at TQ018791. The entrance gate must be locked immediately after entry or exit and the BOC room locked after use.
5. Access is permitted from sunrise to one hour after sunset.
6. Permit holders may park in the car parking area shown on the map provided.
7. Permit holders are entitled to walk around the perimeter of the reservoir on the crest pathway only. The wave wall and banks are out of bounds.
8. Permits must be carried at all times when visiting the reservoir and shown to TW staff together with a photo ID on request.
9. Visitors must not urinate on or foul the site.
10. Visitors must sign in and out at the BOC room on entry and are asked to note sightings in the BOC log book.
11. Visits are made at the permit holders own risk and visitors must behave responsibly and safely. Neither Thames Water nor the Berkshire Ornithological Club can be held liable for personal injury or loss or damage to the permit holder's property.
12. Accidents, emergencies or suspicious activity should be reported to Thames Water's hotline (see permit).
13. Thames Water may suspend access for safety or security reasons at any time; permit holders must comply with instructions from Thames Water staff at QMR (The BOC will endeavour to inform permit holders of suspensions in advance, but cannot guarantee this).

I accept the above conditions and agree to return this permit and any keys issued to the BOC on request.
